THE AMERICAN LEGION
Department of New York

APPROVED AS TO FORM BY THE DEPARTMENT EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE
January 30, 1940
NEW YORK, N. Y.

of

Mary. Basen. POST No. 1758...

THE AMERICAN LEGION
Department of New York

Preamble

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred per cent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our associations in the Great Wars; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.

Article I—Name and Headquarters

Section 1.—The name of this organization shall be M.A.N.N.Y.
BAGOTI. Post No. 1758....., The American Legion, DuFresne County, Department of New York.

Section 2.—The Post headquarters shall be located at Hopewell.....Pa......N.Y...... all notices and documents addressed to the Post shall be sent to these headquarters.

Article II—Objects

Section 1.—The objects and purposes of this post shall be to promote the principles and policies set forth in the foregoing preamble, and the national, department, and...DuFresne.....
County Constitution and By-Laws of The American Legion.

Article III—Nature

Section 1.—This post is a civilian organization and membership therein does not affect or increase liability for military or police service. Rank does not exist in The American Legion; no member shall be addressed by his military or naval title in any meeting of the Post.

Section 2.—This organization shall be absolutely non-political and non-sectarian, and shall not be used for the dissemination of partisan principles nor for the promotion of the candidacy of any person seeking public office or preferment. No candidate for nomination or election to, or no incumbent of any remunerative elective public office shall hold any elective office or any appointive remunerative office in the Post; members of standing or special committees shall not be affected.

Section 3.—Each member shall perform his full duty as a citizen according to his own conscience and understanding.

Article IV—Membership

Section v.—Any person shall be eligible for membership in The American Legion who was regularly enlisted, drafted, inducted or commissioned and who was accepted for and assigned to active duty in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps or Coast Guard of the United States at some time during the period between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, or during the period between December 7, 1941, and September 2, 1945, all dates inclusive, or who, being a citizen of the United States at the time of his entry therein, served on active duty in the armed forces of any of the Governments associated with the United States during either of said World Wars; provided, however, that such service shall have been terminated by honorable discharge or honorable separation, or continue to serve honorably after September 2, 1945; provided further, that no person shall be entitled to membership who, being in such service during either of said periods, refused on conscientious, political or other grounds to subject himself to military discipline or unqualified service.

Section 2.—Application for membership shall be made in writing under such regulations as may from time to time be prescribed by the post executive committee. All applications for membership accompanied by service discharge papers shall be referred to the membership committee, who shall report their findings to the executive committee. Upon approval of eligibility the application accompanied by the dues shall be presented to the Post at a regular meeting and shall be acted upon at such meeting.

Section 3.—There shall be no form or class of membership except an active membership. Dues shall be paid annually or for life.

Section 4.—No person who is a member of another Post may be a member of this Post.

Section 5.—Members may be suspended or expelled from this Post of The American Legion only upon proper showing of cause. Charges shall be based upon disloyalty, neglect of duty, dishonesty, or other conduct unbecoming a member of The American Legion. All charges must be made under oath in writing by the accusers, and no member in good standing shall lose his membership until given a fair trial in such manner and form as the Department By-Laws and Department Executive Committee shall prescribe. This section shall govern procedure whenever charges are brought against any person at any time appearing upon the rolls of this Post as a member, upon the grounds of his ineligibility to membership either in the Post or in The American Legion.

Section 6.—Any member who has been suspended or expelled has the right of appeal to the Department Executive Committee in the manner prescribed by said Committee. The decision of the Department shall be final.

Section 7.—No person, who has been expelled by a Post, shall be admitted to membership in this Post, without the consent of the expelling Post, except that where such consent has been asked for and has been denied by such Post, he may then appeal to the Department Executive Committee for permission to be admitted to membership in this Post, and he shall be ineligible for membership until such permission is granted.

Section 8.—A member who has been expelled or suspended from this Post for any cause other than for non-payment of dues may be reinstated to membership by a two-thirds vote of the executive committee and vote of the Post; provided, however, that he shall make payment of any arrears in his dues at the time of the expulsion or suspension, and also other regular dues which have been payable in the interval between his expulsion or suspension and his reinstatement.

Article V—Officers

Section 1.—The Administration of the Post's affairs, between meetings of the Post, and except as may be otherwise provided in the By-Laws of the Post, shall be under the supervision of an Executive Committee which shall consist of.....members in addition to the elective officers of the Post.

Section 2.—The elective officers of this Post shall be a commander, three vice-commanders, an adjutant, a treasurer, a post historian, a post chaplain and a sergeant-at-arms, and such other officers as may be deemed necessary by this organization.

Section 3.—All elective officers and executive committeemen shall be elected annually and they shall hold office until their successors are duly installed or as otherwise provided.

Section 4.—Every member of this post in good standing shall be eligible to hold office in this post except as otherwise provided herein.

Section 5.—The duties of officers and executive committeemen shall be those usually appertaining to such officers or committeemen and as further provided in the by-laws.

Article VI—Finances and Dues

Section 1.—The revenue of this post shall be derived from membership or initiation fees, from annual membership dues and from such other sources as may be approved by the post.

Section 2.—The minimum annual dues of individual members of the Post shall be Two ($2.00) Dollars per member; the amount of the annual Post dues shall be as set forth in the Post By-Laws.

Section 3.—This Post shall pay annually to the County Organization on or before October 20th, for each of its individual members, an amount deemed necessary by a regularly convened County Convention to operate its organization, in addition to whatever amount is required by the Department and to be paid to the National Organization. A similar payment shall be made on the 20th of each month for all members who have joined the Post since the 20th of the previous month.

Section 4.—All moneys received in any manner for welfare purposes of any nature by the Post shall be deposited in a duly authorized banking institution, and none of such moneys shall be withdrawn except for welfare purposes and upon draft signed by the Treasurer of the Post and at least one other member thereof duly elected for that purpose.

Section 5.—This Post shall not solicit another Post or County organization, for purposes of financial aid or relief.

Article VII—Auxiliary

Section 1.—The Post recognizes an auxiliary organization known as The Auxiliary Unit of _____ Post No. _____
The American Legion.

Article VIII—Sons of The American Legion

Section 1.—This Post recognizes a Sons of the Legion organization, known as the Sons of The American Legion Squadron of _____ Post No. _____, The American Legion Department of New York.

Article XI—Amendments

Section 1.—This constitution is adopted subject to the provisions of the National, Department and County Constitutions and By-Laws, The American Legion. Any amendments to said National, Department, and County Constitutions and By-Laws which are in conflict with any provisions hereof shall be regarded as automatically repealing or modifying the provisions of this Constitution to the extent of such conflict.

Section 2.—This Constitution may be amended at any regular Post meeting by a vote of two-thirds of the members attending such regular meeting, provided that the proposed amendment shall have been submitted in writing and read at a preceding regular meeting of the Post, and provided further that written notice, including a copy of proposed amendment, shall have been sent to all members at least ten days in advance of the date when such amendment is to be voted upon, notifying said members that at such meeting the proposal to amend the Constitution is to be voted upon.

BY-LAWS
