

County, municipalities celebrate

Dutchess County and local municipalities gathered on Nov. 11 to remember the sacrifices of veterans on Veterans Day. (Clockwise from top left) The convoy that traveled throughout the county can be seen in an aerial view over Fishkill. Dutchess County Executive Marc Molinaro makes remarks in Poughkeepsie. Veterans stand at attention outside and listen to veteran Harold Delamater during the annual Veterans Day ceremony held in Beacon. Among those who placed flags off of Route 82 in Hopewell Junction in East Fishkill were, from left, Bill Meyer, John Lyons, Don Burns, Len Hart, John Polasko, Caroline Pogge, John Call, and Bill Kriebel. Volunteers place flags in the display off of Route 82 in East Fishkill.

-Courtesy photos and photo by Kristine Coulter

STOP BY FOR A TOUR OF THE MAUSOLEUM

NEW MAUSOLEUM
ACTUAL PHOTO

Reflect.
REMEMBER.
Honor.

- Tranquil, peaceful sanctuary for reflection
- Protected environment for year-round prayer & meditation
- Nestled in a lovely natural setting of trees & rolling hills
- Full casket & cremation niches available
- Single & family interments
- Comparable in cost to in-ground burial

Fishkill Rural Cemetery

(845) 896-2227 • FISHKILLRURALCEMETERY.COM

veterans on Veterans Day 2020

(Clockwise from top left) Wappingers Falls veterans take part in the annual ceremony held at Major Joseph McDonald MIA/POW Park, East Main St., in Wappingers Falls.

Village Judge and veteran Raymond Chase salutes as Wappingers Falls Mayor Matt Alexander makes a presentation during the ceremony, which was hosted by J.M. Goring - WM. Hurtz American Legion Post #427 & VFW Post.

Town of Wappinger Supervisor Richard Thurston makes remarks during the town's annual ceremony held outside the Wappinger Town Hall on Middlebush Road.

County Legislator Joseph Cavaccini participates in the honoring of veterans.

-Courtesy photos

Rolling Thunder honors Castle Point veterans

Members of Rolling Thnder honored veterans at the VA Hudson Valley Healthcare System Castle Point campus on Sunday, Nov. 8. (Clockwise from top left) The Rolling Thunder members drive through the facility, which was led by the VA Fire Department, VA Police, and other emergency responders. Members of Rolling Thunder recognize veterans on the Castle Point campus. A wave from Rolling Thunder members.

-Courtesy photos